

What must a complete publication reference contain?

Please report all available information:

Journal with peer review:

author(s)                      year or „in press“                      name of the journal
Page numbers                      Titel                      Volume                      Issue Number

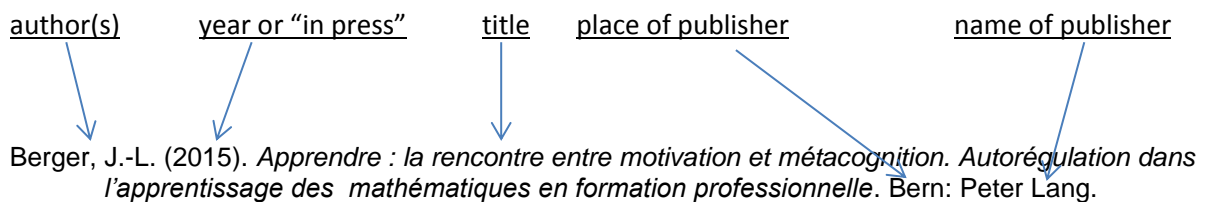

Barabasch, A., Merrill, B., & Zanazzi, S. (2015). Structural support, networking and individual survival: career changes in Italy and Spain. British Journal of Career Guidance and Counselling, 43(3), 323-336.

book:

author(s)                      year or “in press”                      title                      place of publisher                      name of publisher

Berger, J.-L. (2015). Apprendre : la rencontre entre motivation et métacognition. Autorégulation dans l'apprentissage des mathématiques en formation professionnelle. Bern: Peter Lang.

book contribution:

author(s)                      year or “in press”                      title of contribution                      editor(s)                      book title page number                      Ort des Verlags                      Name des Verlags

Bonoli, L. (2016). The Development of Statistics in the VET Domain in Switzerland: Issues and Difficulties between 1880 and 1930. In E. Berner & P. Gonon (Eds.), History of VET – Cases, Concepts and Challenges (pp. 387-400). Bern: Peter Lang.

Advantage employees: With the notification of publications and congress contributions, an update on the homepage is also made. This means that the CV of the employees is updated accordingly!